MRS. MARTHA SEVERANCE returned from Louisville yesterday.

A. T. NUNNELLEY, the Texas drummer, is with his parents here.

MRS. A. B. RUE, of Harrodsburg, was with Mrs. W. M. Matheny.

MISS MARY BOSSE has returned from a visit to Louisville friends.

BOWEN VANARSDALE went over to Lexington Friday to see his sister.

ROBERT HENRY, of the Central Record, Lancaster, was here Saturday.

IRA GRIMES and family, of Garrard, were with Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Cook.

MISS LUCIE BEAZLEY is in the city buying goods for her millinery store.

B. FRANK JONES, of Carlisle, was here with his brother, John P. Jones.

MR. HENRY D. BAUGHMAN has been very ill with pneumonia, but is improving.

JOHN M. HALE, city clerk of Somerset, spent several days with his mother here.

MRS. E. FISHBACK, of Livingston, spent several days with the Misses Straub.

D. A. BARNETT, of Lebanon Junction, visited his parents at Rowland last week.

MISS MARY MARSHALL MATHENY spent last week with relatives at Stanford Female College.

MR. THOMAS BAUGHMAN, of Danville, is visiting the families of M. S. and J. W. Baughman.

JOE NEWLAND, our clever operator, visited his mother at Crab Orchard—East Bernstadt Progress.

REV. J. H. HOPPER, of Perryville, was here Saturday on his way to Kirksville to baptize a child.

MR. AND MRS. J. C. RINEHART, of Livingston, spent several days with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Fish.

MRS. S. M. LOGAN is down from Middlesboro to see her sister, Mrs. Jennie Dunn, who continues ill.

JUDGE WILLIAM TOTTEN and granddaughter, Miss Nellie Ray, of Lancaster, were guests at J. L. Totten's.

MISS PEARL KING, who was taken ill while attending the business college at Louisville, was here yesterday, almost sufficiently recovered to return to her studies.

MRS. LIZZIE HOCKER will move to Covington this week and make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Bagby. Her son, Willie, went over several days ago.

MR. AND MRS. J. B. CARTER, of Garrard, were here yesterday returning from Louisville, where the former has been buying goods.

MRS. T. J. AND J. B. FOSTER desire the Aid Society to meet with them at the home of the former on Friday next from 2 to 4.

JASON WESLEY and Mrs. J. B. Williams, of Middleburg, were here Sunday to meet their brother, Theodore Wesley, and family, of Mt. Vernon, who are spending a week with them.

THE Mt. Vernon Signal says that Mrs. James Maret is very ill and we suppose that accounts for the absence of a letter from that place. We sincerely hope that she will soon recover.

ANDREW W. BUCHANAN, of Crab Orchard, and George W. Welch, Jr., of Danville, are among the dozen law students of Centre College admitted to the bar at the present term of the Boyle circuit court.

DR. J. W. PARKHILL, of Jeffersonville, O., a homeopath, has located here to practice. He has rented Mrs. R. E. L. Sims' property in the West End of town and will office in one of the rooms over Beazley Bros' livery stable.

MISS BETTIE POWELL closed her school at Mr. M. S. Baughman's Friday and went to Harrodsburg the same day to attend the Christian Endeavor convention. The patrons of the school are greatly pleased with Miss Powell.

THE catalogue of Centre College shows 244 students. Among the June graduates are J. C. Caldwell, Jr., E. P. Curry, G. Clay Goodloe, L. W. Green, J. C. Slaughter and J. C. Thompsonkins Danville, Dewitt T. C. Grubbs, Shelby City, and W. R. Henry, of Williamsburg.

At the Confederate reunion at Nashville, the first man almost that we recognized in the parade was Alexander Tribble, of Junction City, and he was "riding a horse." He will ride again at the reunion at Louisville, having been appointed an aide to Gen. Poyntz with the rank of major.

ON Friday's train bound for the Christian Endeavor meeting at Harrodsburg were President Miss Edna Powell and Miss Lee Powell, of Hustonville, and Misses Florence Tanner, Annie Taylor, Alice Alcorn, Roberta Cash, Etta Belle Root and Nannie Bailey, of Turnersville. Elder J. W. Hagan was with them.

MR. O. P. McROBERTS, of Danville, is with his nephews, W. B. and P. M. McRoberts.

MR. E. G. WALLER, of Louisville, is here and is about to sell his residence on East Main street.

SQUIRE L. B. ADAMS and Miss Lou Hocker, of Hustonville, have both been very sick, but are better.

J. T. MENEFEE, of the L. & N., with headquarters at Montgomery, Ala., is here to see sick grand mother, who is improving.

MRS. W. CARROLL SHANKS and Miss Anne Shanks will entertain the fancy work club Thursday afternoon beginning at 2:30.

MR. RICHARD COBB is holding his own fairly well. Mr. Thomas Phelps and Miss Minna, of Madison, arrived yesterday to see him.

REV. W. S. GRINSTEAD and son, Lether, of Taylorsville, are with his daughter, Mrs. E. H. Beazley. Mr. Grinstead will preach at the Methodist church Thursday night.

MR. THOMAS DALTON is considering a good offer to go to Middlesboro and open a jewelry and watch repairing store. He has been up there and is much pleased with the prospect.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

HAMILTON for good watch work. *

W. D. FARRIS, of Owingsville, who had been under treatment at Crab Orchard Springs, died on his return home.

JONES gives his cut price sale on Percales this week. If he makes prices as low as he did on curtains last week they will certainly go. *

THE annual sermon to the faculty and students of Stanford Female College will be preached on Sunday, June 3rd, by the Rev. J. R. Savage, of Danville.

CENTRE COLLEGE beat the University of Indiana 13 to 4 in a game of base ball at Danville Friday afternoon. Several from Stanford saw the game, which was a very poor one.

J. W. PERRIN closed a trade with Brady & Terry yesterday for their grocery and fresh meat business, giving them cost and carriage for their stock. Invoicing will begin this morning.

JANIE WASH INSTITUTE at Middleburg changed hands again last week, Mitchell Taylor buying it from Mc. Wheat for $1,130. The building cost about $4,000 only a few years ago, but Mr. Wheat bought it for $1,000 a few months since.

BOSS FISHERMAN—Charlie Armstrong, colored, is the boss fisherman in this section. Besides what he and his family have eaten he has sold 80 pounds of fish he caught with hook and line in the last two weeks. Friday he caught a 64-pound cat fish out of Dix river, which measured 27 inches in length.

HON. FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT sends us a dissertation on the proper mode of baptism, but we draw the line at that. That question has been threshed over so many times by more competent authority that further efforts in that direction must necessarily be too chestnutty for anything but a religious paper.

SHOT.—Gen. Daniel R. Collier, formerly adjutant general, was the victim of a painful accident while handling a revolver. The weapon was accidentally discharged. The bullet, a short 38, passed through the fleshy part of the hand, coming out at the wrist, making a wound which will disable him for several days.

WALTER GRISSOM and John Mounts were tried before Squire Coffey at Hustonville yesterday for breach of the peace when the former was fined $5 and the latter acquitted. Grissom was also tried for using insulting and abusive language to a man named Nicholson, but the jury failed to agree and he was let off with the costs.

THE members of the Knights of Pythias lodge at Pittsburg are looking forward to a big time on Saturday, May 19, when they will have a grand picnic. Their splendid, new lodge room building will be dedicated on that occasion and besides a number of grand lodge officers, members from many lodges in the State will be present. If you are a "K. P." go and join W. Bastin, S. H. Brinton, Doc Foster or any of the "brothers" there will see that you have a good time.

H. CLAY HUNT, known and liked by everybody in this section, will become one of the proprietors of the well-known wholesale grocery house of Pearson & Clark, Lexington, June 1, he, Messrs. A. G. and Roger Bryan and a Mr. Day, of Winchester, having bought the firm's business. Both of the Bryans, like Mr. Hunt, have been drummers for the above house for years. Mr. Hunt will continue his trips to Stanford and other towns in his territory, our merchants and others will be glad to know.

FOR the next two weeks I will give out prices on buggies and carriages. Now is your chance to ride. W. A. Carson.

HOUSE of four rooms in good repair, good garden, on Whitley avenue, opposite Infirmary, for rent. Only $5 per month.

HELD OVER.—John Adams, charged with stealing sacks and corn from John Cook, was held over to circuit court in $150, which he was unable to give.

PERFECT weather conditions have prevailed for a week and May day dawns brightly and promises to be a typical one. It is getting quite dry, however, and the dust in some places is several inches thick.

ELIJAH MOORE, of Liberty, brother of Mrs. Ed Wilkinson, of this place, has bought the mail route from Moreland to Liberty and is now in possession and is operating the hack line back and forth daily. Mr. King, former owner, has gone to farming.

SALE.—Waverly Hamilton has sold to his father, Isaac Hamilton, the Tim Pennington farm of 97½ acres, near Rowland, for $6,000. There is on the place a good brick house and the other improvements are fair. It is likely Waverly will return to his first love—railroading; at which he is a success.

OUR boys met a Waterloo at Lancaster Friday afternoon, when the base ball team of that place defeated them by a score of 12 to 8. Harry Higgins struck out 15 men and was well caught by George Florence, but their support was bad and they lost as above stated. The Lancaster team will likely play here Friday afternoon.

"WHAT do you think of the brief as synoptically given in the papers today?" was asked of Lawyer C. C. Williams, of Mt. Vernon, who was on Sunday's train returning from Lexington. "It is nothing more than the kind of a stump speech one might expect a republican to make to a partisan audience on Brush creek, with no democrat to answer him. I am surprised that reputable lawyers should offer such a thing to the highest court, even with as bad a case as Taylor has."

ROBBERY.—Mr. R. B. Woods' room at his son's, Mr. E. P. Woods', was entered Saturday night and Mr. Woods' pocket book containing $2.50 in cash, a $42 check and valuable papers stolen. A drawer containing some papers was also missing but a search of the premises found all of the above, including the cash, in the garden. It is supposed that the thief got scared and dropped his load in his effort to escape. The bloodhounds were taken to the scene early Sunday morning but they failed to trace the scoundrel. Mr. Woods thinks some one well acquainted with the situation did the work and he will spare no energy in bringing him to justice.

OUR Goebel monument fund was swelled $12.25 yesterday by Mr. B. W. Givens, our Hubble committeeman, who handed in the following list. Those who contributed $1 each are: Mrs. Eliza Harris, T. C. Rankin, L. G. Hubble, George T. Wood, J. C. Eubanks, M. B. Eubanks, W. H. Underwood, Col. Underwood, R. L. Hubble and B. W. Givens. Those who gave 50 cents each are John Underwood, Thos. McMillan and Charles Withers; 25 cents each George W. Givens, James W. Brackett and James E. Harris. We hope our friends will not let the good work lag. This county ought at least to contribute $200 whereas we have less than $125.

CUT WITH A RAZOR.—Dink Farmer and Tom Gill, who have been at outs for some time, got together on the Somerset pike near J. W. Baughman's Saturday morning and as a result Farmer has two ugly gashes in his side and breast about four inches long and Gill a swollen head. The latter used a razor and while the cuts he made on Mr. Farmer look dangerous enough to kill, Dr. W. B. O'Bannon, who dressed them, says unless something unexpected happens the clever candidate for jailer will soon be all right. He says that Gill overtook him and after a few words threw his hand behind him and brought out the razor and that he used what rocks he could find to the best advantage possible. Finally they clinched and it was during this that the wounds were inflicted. Gill took to his heels, but was soon caught by Deputy Sheriff C. B. Owens and Jack Beazley, when he was taken before Judge Bailey, who set his trial for yesterday. He failed to give the bond of $150 and laid in jail. Yesterday the trial was postponed to await the ability of Mr. Farmer to attend.

LADIES we fit your gloves nicely before you buy. Big lot of tans, greys and whites just in. J. P. Jones. *

THE 45th annual meeting of the Kentucky State Medical Society, Dr. Steele Bailey, of this place, secretary, will meet at Georgetown May 9th and be in session three days.

THE promoters of the 4th of July celebration are requested to meet at the court house at 7:30 Friday evening next, 4th, to arrange program, etc., for the day. Everybody requested to attend.

THE case of W. V. Richardson against the Louisville Post for libel is on at Danville. Plaintiff asks for $10,000 damages. R. W. Knott and B. G. Boyle, principal owners of the Post, are present.

THE wife of Ben Hays, colored, who lives near the pest house, has terrorized a number of women by drawing a knife on them, shaking them, &c. Her mind is undoubtedly out of balance and the officers should look after her.

THE Curry Grocery Co., of Harrodsburg, has bought the old Gore Hotel at Junction City and will erect a brick building suitable for a wholesale grocery on the site where the hotel stands. The general office of the company will be kept at Harrodsburg, but their goods will be stored at Junction City.

SINGLETON.—Mrs. Martha Singleton, widow of Hurdley Singleton, of Crab Orchard, died Saturday night of pneumonia at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bowen Gover, in Danville, aged 70. She was a woman of great energy and managed her business with much skill. A good Christian woman has gone to her reward. The burial was in the cemetery at Crab Orchard.
